Q19 It is important to the UK ICC to understand how effective our advice and assistance is in helping consumers in resolving their disputes. To this end, we would like to send you a very short survey a few weeks after your contact with us by leaving enough time for your problem to have been resolved or not. If you would be happy to respond to a short survey (no more than 5 questions), please leave your email address here. Your email address will only be used for survey purposes and not shared with any other party.
